

March 9, 2015

Dear Class Member:

On February 24, 2014, we notified you that the trial court had dismissed all class members who did not live in the State of Texas and who did not deliver phonebooks for Directory Distributing Associates and AT&T in the State of Texas. We also advised you that we would be appealing the trial court's decision to the Texas Court of Appeals. On February 26, 2015, the Texas Court of Appeals upheld the trial court's dismissal of all class members who did not live in the State of Texas and who did not deliver phonebooks in the State of Texas.

While we will continue to appeal the dismissal and will seek to reinstate the claims that have been dismissed, we must notify you of your rights.

If you are not a resident of the State of Texas and did not deliver phonebooks for Directory Distributing and AT&T in the State of Texas, what does this mean for you?

1. You can do nothing and wait to see if we can reverse the dismissal. If we win the appeal, you will be reinstated to the lawsuit.
2. You can withdraw from this case. We will not represent you and you will not recover money in this case if we win. If you choose to withdraw, you may be able to file a separate lawsuit in your own state. The withdrawal form is available at www.ddadeliveryworkersgroup.com or you can contact our office for a copy. If you choose to pursue this option, please mail it back to us at:
